

I strongly oppose the proposed changes in ownership rules being considered by the Commission and urge the Commission to preserve free and fair competition in media markets.